ANSWER: __For all individuals above listed, the answer is NO, they have not engaged in any of the activities that could cause me to have a conflict of interest under the Voters FIRST Act.

Except for the following four (4) individuals, the answer is NO, I do not have a special relationship with this person/these persons based on any of the three factors described. The answer is YES for the following four (4) persons only:

PETER M. HODSON: I provided my brother a $1,000 gift in December 2009.
EVELYN J. HODSON: I resided with my spouse, own residential real property (our home and a rental) with my spouse, and have provided my spouse financial benefits totaling $1,000 or more in the form of shared income. (She may have different opinions about the value of any benefits I have provided.)
ROBERT G. HODSON: I have paid my son's college tuition, costs, and living expenses and have provided him various gifts for the past 4 years, totalling approximately $50,000 per year.
DONALD J. HODSON: I have paid my son's college tuition, costs, and living expenses and have provided him various gifts for the past 3 years, totaling approximately $50,000 per year. (One year to go.)

TYPE YOUR NAME: I, JOHN D. HODSON, affirm, by entering my name here, that the statements contained here are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

For this family member, you must state whether within the past 10 years the person has engaged in any of the activities that could cause you to have a conflict of interest under the Voters FIRST Act. The following is a list of those activities:

- Been appointed to, elected to, or a candidate for a California congressional or state office. ("Appointed" means appointed by the Governor, a member of the Legislature, or a member of the State Board of Equalization, or served at the pleasure of the Governor, a member of the Legislature, or a member of the State Board of Equalization.)
- Served as an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a California political party or the campaign committee of a candidate for a California congressional or elective state office.
- Served as an elected or appointed member of a political party central committee operating in California.
- Been a lobbyist registered with the State of California or a California local government.
- Been a registered federal lobbyist.
- Served as paid California congressional, legislative, or State Board of Equalization staff.
- Contributed $2,000 or more during a calendar year to any California congressional, state, or local candidate for elective public office.

Within the past 10 years, has this family member engaged in any of the activities listed above that could cause you to have a conflict of interest?: Yes No

If you answered "Yes" to the last question:

- When did the activity occur?:

- What was the activity?:

For each family member you must indicate whether you have a special (bona fide) relationship with that person. You have a special (bona fide) relationship with a family member if during the past 12 months you have (Guidance on Conflicts of Interest):

1. Resided with that person for a period or periods totaling 30 days or more (Examples).
2. Shared with that person ownership of any real or personal property having a total value of $1,000 or more (Examples).
3. Provided to or received from that person a financial benefit totaling $1,000 or more (Examples).

Do you have a special relationship with this person based on any of the three factors described above?: Yes No
